Summer Reading Challenge: Imagine Your Story Online Summer Reading Programs for all ages

We're introducing BeanStack, an online summer reading program for all ages. Watch this video to get started: <https://youtu.be/vC39OGmcH9g>. Sign up for Pre-School, Elementary, or Adult challenges, fun, and prizes. Log your reading and participate in activities and your name will be entered in drawings throughout the summer. Share book reviews and even pictures of all the fun things you do this summer. There's an app to access your reading log anywhere! <https://abingtonfreelibrary.beanstack.org/>

GSK Science in the Summer is coming!

Young scientists: Learn about chemistry on the GSK Science in the Summer "Be a Chemist" web page. Perform at-home experiments in four categories: medicinal, materials, water, and color. You'll find videos, supply lists, and activity guides there to help you get started. After you finish your experiments, attend live virtual meetings with Franklin Institute educators and other student chemists to discuss your results. For details, visit <http://scienceinthsummer.fi.edu/be-a-chemist>

Virtual-Getting Organized for Home or Cyber School. Monday, August 24, 7 pm

Virtual Daytime Book Discussion Group, Every first Thursday of the month at 1 p.m.

Virtual Craft and Chat - Thursdays, 11-11:45am. Join us with your project and have company while you knit, weave, make jewelry, etc. Have a finished product you would like to show? Bring that also. Don't have supplies? We can send you ideas for alternatives until you can get to a craft store again. Register here to be sent Zoom instructions. There will be a practice time when anyone new to Zoom can test the software. Questions: mmitchell@mclinc.org
