History Chapter Images

From Montgomery County and Pennsylvania map (1871), Published by G.M. Hopkins & Co.

Acquisition and Settlement

Abington Friends Meetinghouse was one of the first buildings in the township; the original building on the site was constructed in 1698-1699.

Willow Grove Park callout Box

Government and Community Services

Abington Jefferson Hospital occupies more land than any other land use in Abington Village today [Source: Nearmap, Imagery Dated February 15, 2020]

Hillside Cemetery, Roslyn

Villages

Villages
Abington

Former Abington High School (1888), Susquehanna Road (in Abington Village area)

Villages
Crestmont

The First Baptist Church of Crestmont was constructed 1910-1919 to serve the African-American community between

Villages
Glenside, Keswick, and Weldon

Transportation and the trolley played an important role in Keswick's development.

Villages
Hollywood

Hollywood was Modeled After its Famous Cousin in California

Villages
Hollywood

North Hills was previously known as "Remlu Heights," "Edge Hill," and "North Glenside."

Villages
Roslyn

Easton and Bradfield Roads, Roslyn.

Villages
Roslyn

Roslyn got its name from the local rose-growing industry. One of the prominent commercial rose-growers was Victor Groshen, who planted the copper beech tree pictured above on his property. It is now the site of Copper Beech Elementary School. Photo Credit and Source: Abington Shade Tree Commission.

SuburbanNeighborhoods
Rydal-Meadowbrook

The Rydal Train Station (originally known as "Benezet"), constructed 1883.

Suburban Neighborhoods

Huntingdon Valley

The Newtown Branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad traveled through Huntingdon Valley. It is now the Pennypack Trail.